

Profile

Girish Krishnamurthy
MD and CEO
Tata MD

Mr. Girish Krishnamurthy is the Managing Director and CEO at Tata MD. A high growth CEO, who in addition steered several companies as Board of Director, Advisor and Mentor.

Over the last 15 years, Girish has played a key role in many of the Tata Group's initiatives across several businesses. He is one of the go-to-person roped in to conceive new ideas and solve complex problems to scale up businesses. He has conceptualized and executed innovative solutions to complex problems in the areas of healthcare.

Girish leads Tata Group's key initiatives in healthcare. Girish has effectively brought many healthcare innovations to fruition to improve the lives of citizens and transformed the way healthcare is delivered in India, making it more accessible by applying digital technologies to healthcare paradigms. He has also envisioned and executed key public healthcare delivery transformations across several states in India.

Girish is currently spearheading Tata MD and launched a unique healthcare model for Chronic diseases in urban India. AI Healthcare Innovator, Mr Girish has developed AI platform driven by GenAI and LLM is designed to focus on clinical workflow optimization, patient outcome improvement, and drive efficiency across the healthcare continuum, through a comprehensive suite of features and capabilities. With a focus on innovation, interoperability, and user experience, the platform to revolutionize healthcare delivery and experience globally.

This AI model is a product of meticulous development over the past eight years through extensive experimentation across large-scale, vast, high impact initiatives spanning primary, secondary and tertiary healthcare, and touching the lives of over 5 million patients of varying needs.

Girish has been recognized for his transformative thinking and has been felicitated with several awards. He has been a member of several national government committees. He has authored multiple papers on technology and business strategies. An enthusiastic speaker at various industry forums, Girish also mentors several start-up businesses.